CWR Monthly

March 2006

Busy, Busy, Busy are the words for this month. As March begins, the middle leg of tax season kicks into high gear. Fortunately, I have been able to keep pace with the returns coming in thus far and thereby completing returns for my clients in record time, thus preventing extensive delays in their preparation. Because of filing early, many clients have seen their refunds being direct deposited into their accounts within a matter of days, instead of weeks.

In keeping with my decision to provide you links to the IRS TAX TIPS webpage during the tax preparation season, the link for this month's tax tips is provided below. (Remember, our newsletter is one month ahead of the IRS TAX TIPS, i.e. the March newsletter provides a link to the IRS February TAX TIPS).

It is my continued hope that you might discover some additional TAX TIPS to answer questions you have concerning your 2004 Income Tax Return.

Please follow the directions below to access the IRS tax tips selected for this month's newsletter.

Til next time,

Charlie
